

Benefit to the Poor and Broader Community

(in thousands)	Year Ended June 30
	2011	2010
Cost of Community Benefit:
Cost of charity care provided*	$ 244,949	$ 221,140
(Free or reduced-cost health services for people who cannot afford to pay)
Unpaid cost of public programs, Medicaid and other indigent care programs	242,163	235,161
(Cost of services in excess of government reimbursement)
Nonbilled services	25,379	25,576
(clinics, meal programs, etc., provided free or at a low cost)
Cash and in-kind donations	2,975	2,861
(Donations of food, equipment, supplies, etc., to address the needs of people who are poor or underserved)
Education and research	33,397	24,908
(Cancer prevention outreach, stop-smoking programs, heart disease programs, etc.)
Other benefit	63,283	65,198
Total cost of community benefit from continuing operations	612,146	574,844
Total cost of community benefit from discontinued operations	—	13,779
Total Cost of Community Benefit	612,146	588,623
Unpaid cost of Medicare from continuing operations	461,358	456,729
Unpaid cost of Medicare from discontinued operations	—	9,867
(Cost of services in excess of government reimbursement)
Total Unpaid Cost of Medicare	461,358	466,596
Total Cost of Community Benefit and the Unpaid Cost of Medicare	$ 1,073,504	$ 1,055,219

* The amount shown represents the cost of charity care provided. The amount of charity care provided, determined on the basis of charges, was 4.0 percent and 3.7 percent of gross patient services revenues in 2011 and 2010, respectively.